MEMORANDUM

TO: City and County Superintendents

FROM: Thomas R. Bice
State Superintendent of Education

RE: Alabama 4-H Invitational at Buckmasters Expo, August 14-17, 2014

Alabama 4-H is the educational youth development program and outreach of our Land-Grant University System (Auburn University, Alabama A&M University, and Tuskegee University). The Alabama State Department of Education is pleased to support this educational out-of-school 4-H activity.

Students with parental consent and notification to their principal prior to the activity may be considered for an excused absence on the dates of Thursday, August 14, and/or Friday, August 15, to participate in the “Alabama 4-H Archery and Air Rifle Invitational Jamboree at Buckmasters Expo” in Montgomery, Alabama.

For more information about this event or how your school might partner with Alabama 4-H to support clubs and special programs that support your curriculum, please go to www.alabama4h.com or www.buckmasters.com.
