Certificate Valid Periods

Since July 1, 1997, the Teacher Certification Section has issued Professional Educator Certificates with a valid period of five schoolastic years, with all certificates dated July to June. The first valid year was determined by specific dates of when requirements were met.
Certificate is issued 12-17-13, it will be valid 12-17-13 through 6-30-18.
Certificate is issued 1-29-13, it will be valid 1-29-13 through 6-30-18.

Examples:

Consecutive scholastic years.
Same scholastic year, and thereafter, for the next five years.

Renewable Career and Technical Certificates, valid from the date of issuance through the remainder of the cycle.
Professional Leadership Certificates, and Professional Educator Certificates.

The proposed change is to make Professional Educator Certificates valid consecutively.
