FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 23, 2019

16th Annual Chiquita Marbury Technology Innovation Awards

Montgomery, Ala. – The 16th Annual Chiquita Marbury Technology Innovation Award, sponsored by the Alabama State Department of Education and the Alabama Educational Technology Conference (AETC), honors the legacy and invaluable service of Alabama technology innovator Chiquita Marbury.

The 2019 Awards will be presented at the Opening Session of the upcoming AETC on June 12. This special event begins at 8:00 a.m., at Mobile’s Arthur R. Outlaw Convention Center. Nominees were judged based on five important criteria areas:

- Innovation and Creativity
- Impact on Teaching and Learning
- Leadership
- Teamwork
- Scholarship

The awards panel rated teacher attribute scores for the highest level of excellence in each award area. The official 2019 award winners are:

- Avis Williams – Selma City Schools, Superintendent
- Sara Fenn – Eufaula City Schools, District Technology Coordinator
- Davida Hill-Johnson – Malachi Wilkerson Middle School, Birmingham City Schools, School Administrator
- Allison Lindsay – Morris Slingluff Elementary School, Dothan City Schools, Elementary School Teacher
- Stacy Brooks – Causey Middle School, Mobile County Schools, Middle School Teacher
- Kelly Sasser – Central High School, Phenix City Schools, High School Teacher

###